

If passed, this proceeding would aid international use of the 160m band, as interference from SSB and AM stations in an exclusive CW band portion would be eliminated. There is plenty of spectrum above 1.843 MHz for wideband modes.
ZL3IX, New Zealand